Bio Note

Andrew Zohn is recognized internationally for his work as a performer, instructor, and composer. He has performed concerts on four continents as a soloist, and as part of Duo Spiritoso with Canadian guitarist Jeffrey McFadden. Zohn holds degrees from The Florida State University, the University of Texas, and the North Carolina School of the Arts. Since 1999, he has served on the faculty of the Schwob School of Music (Columbus State University) in Georgia, and directs its annual Guitar Symposium. He also serves as a visiting faculty at the Istituto Musicale Pareggiato della Valle d'Aosta in Italy. His students have won prizes in international competitions and have been featured on From the Top. Zohn has performed and taught at many of the world's most prestigious music festivals. He regularly receives commissions to compose new works for performers and arts institutions. He has won a Plus Award from ASCAP five times. His compositions and transcriptions are published by Theodore Presser, and others. His recordings have received wide acclaim.
